

Welcome to Leinster PLACE

A Ministry of Mercy Partners

Tranquil and contemporary living awaits you

At Leinster Place, residents can enjoy a tranquil and contemporary living experience in our 79-bed facility, which features cottage-style accommodations. Each resident is provided with a private room, ensuite, and a balcony that opens onto beautifully manicured gardens.

We have a highly skilled and dedicated team committed to ensuring the well-being and flourishing of our residents in every aspect of their lives. Our comprehensive care includes top-quality clinical services delivered by our medical and allied health professionals. We also provide onsite pastoral care and regular Catholic Mass and Anglican services in our Chapel.

What you can expect

Each house in Leinster Place has a large, open plan dining and kitchen area, along with a private dining area which can seat six people. The dining areas feature much natural light and full-length windows providing views to the garden.

Our First Nations residents enjoy culturally appropriate activities, as do all our residents who remain connected with the community through a variety of interest groups.
